Maximilian was sentenced to be Shot on the 4th inst.

The Surratt Trial.

A Full Report of Yesterday's Proceedings.

News from Washington

RECOVERY OF THE MISSING TREASURY BONDS.

Five in Chicago—Eleven Persons Reported to have Perished.

NEW ORLEANS, June 18.

Maximilian was convicted on the night of the 13th and sentenced to be shot on the 4th, said Maximilian and his wife.

Gen. Meritt, commanding City of Mexico, had arrested 1600 liberal sympathizers in the city, and through and through the capital.

Mejia's execution was his counsel, who refused to serve, saying he would not be damned.

WASHINGTON, June 18.

Surratt's trial was resumed this morning. Joseph M. Dyke was recalled to the witness stand.

The witness was asked the question, by Mr. Pierpont as to what occurred in the way out of H. street after the witness and his companion started, for camp Barry after the trial and the execution of the assassination of the President.

Mr. Bradley objected unless the prosecution first stated what the connection this matter was with the prisoner, or what they expected to prove.

Mr. Pierpont said the prosecution would offer no evidence that they could not connect with the prisoner. They proposed to prove that the person referred to in yesterday's question was Mrs. Surratt's house; that John H. Surratt and left it a few minutes previously, and that it was Mrs. Surratt who asked the question of the witness.

Mr. Bradley said Mrs. Surratt was not here a lawyer.

Mr. Pierpont—Neither is Booth.

Mr. Bradley—Booth was not there at the time.

The Court decided to admit the answer and let it stand as it is, and if it did not connect the prisoner with the assassination, Mr. Bradley would object.

The witness gave his answer to the question as follows:

As I passed out of H. street, a woman related the window of a house and asked what was wrong down town. I told her President Lincoln had been shot. She asked how I knew that and I told her that I saw John H. Surratt and left it a few minutes previously, and that it was Mrs. Surratt who asked the question of the witness.

Q—To whom did you first communicate what you saw that night?

A—To my father.

Q—To whom else?

A—To no one in particular. I mentioned it to no one in particular. I mentioned it to no one in particular.

Q—What did you do after that?

A—I told no one what I could prove. I told no one what I could prove.

Q—What did you do after that?

A—I told no one what I could prove. I told no one what I could prove.

Q—What did you do after that?
